

Reading: The Most Important Homework

There is no other homework more important than reading. Your children should read for a minimum of 15-20 minutes every day. They can read independently, with a sibling, or with an adult. They can read books from the classroom library, school library, public library, or elsewhere. They can listen to books on Audible to improve their vocabulary and comprehension.

Reading Discussion Questions

- *1. What was your favorite part?
- *2. Tell me about the characters in the story.
- *3. What happened at the beginning, middle, and end?
- *4. Where and when does the story take place?
- *5. Can you think of a different ending for this story?
- *6. Did this story remind you of any other stories?
- *7. Can you retell this story in your own words?
- *8. Could this story be real? Is it fact or fiction?
- *9. Were there any problems in this story? How were they resolved/solved?
- *10. If non-fiction, what were the main ideas?
- *11. If non-fiction, what new facts did you learn?