

2nd Annual TVUSD Great Oak HS Choral Festival

Come join the GOHS singers for the second annual TVUSD Great Oak High School Choral Festival, Oct. 26 and 30, at Great Oak High School, 32555 Deer Hollow Way, in Temecula.

The GOHS choir program has earned many awards as a group and for its students individually. Many Great Oak singers have received vocal scholarships, and colleges from around the state and the country visit every year to actively recruit from the program. In the 2018-2019 school year, the choirs earned superior and excellent scores at a Southern California Vocal Association festivals, and it sent 2 singers to represent the district in the All-State Honor Choir as the only participants from the district.

The festival is open to all TVUSD middle school. Participants will learn three choral pieces at a Saturday rehearsal, Oct. 26, and will perform with 120 current GOHS singers at their Oct. 30 concert. Participants will receive sheet music, T-shirt and lunch as well as a chance to work with Mr. Park and his singers all day. The cost is $10 per person. Registration is now open.
